N. A. CALKINS, No. 318 Broadway, NEW-YORK.

LIFE OF NATHAN HALE, THE MARTYR
AND SPY OF THE REVOLUTION. By J. W. BREWER.
Illustrated by sketches of "His Birthplace," "Youthful Gems," "Entering New-York with his prize ship," "His Capture," "His March to execution," "The Hale Monument," &c.

A most touching tribute to one who "regretted he had but one life to lose for his country." —Bridgeport Standard.

"It will be read with lively interest by the whole American people. The most vivid and impressive sketches from Stuart's ready and graceful pen."

The author has been exquisitely wrought by an artist's hand,
and all will believe who have read Stuart's former works,
that he is indeed a master.

A most attractive and exciting volume. The tale is told with great simplicity and beauty, and often in passages of lofty eloquence. —Albany Argus.

"A work in Stuart's best style, and may well read again and again with new interest. Sketches are vivid and beautifully grouped, revealing a master hand in every line."

Hollister, Historian of Conn.

"He laid down his life for his country with more than Roman bravery and heroism. He died under circumstances which will make him a martyr to freedom and truth." —Harford Courant.

Price $1. A liberal discount to the trade. Single copies sent

Of the most brilliant and charming Romance of the day.

HERNIE LINWOOD,

By MRS. CAROLINE LEE HENTZ.

A melancholy interest attaches to this charming volume, its gifted authoress having passed into the silent land without even seeing it print. Her dying legacy to the world of literature, and the most fascinating and beautiful production of her pen is now complete.
